The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood
Year B

2nd June 2024

Corpus Christi

Jesus knows that his hours are numbered. But he is not planning to hide or flee. Instead he arranges a special farewell dinner with the men and women closest to him. It is a solemn and intimate moment for him and his disciples; he wants to experience it in all its depth. This is a well thought-out decision. Aware of his imminent death, he needs to convey to them his total trust in the Father, even in this hour. He wants to prepare them for the crushing blow that awaits then; his execution must not plunge them into sadness or hopelessness. They need to share the questions that they are all pondering: what will become of God's reign without Jesus? What should they do? Where will they turn now, to nourish their hope for the coming reign of God?

With his unbreakable trust in God's reign, Jesus sets out to enliven the meal by sharing his hope with the disciples. He began the meal in the usual way of taking bread and blessing it and distributing a piece to all. They all know this gesture, he had done so many times with them, and with sinners, tax collectors and prostitutes! But this time he adds words that give this gesture new meaning: "This is my body. I am this body. See me in these pieces of bread, giving myself to the end, to bring you the blessing of God."

At the end of the meal the host would take the wine and offer a prayer of thanks for the meal (as we might offer a 'toast' today). Again, Jesus surprises them by sharing that same cup – his cup. Passing the cup around and offering it to everyone, Jesus sees in it something "new" and special that he wants to explain: "This cup is the new Covenant in my blood. My blood will open up a new future for you and for everyone." Jesus is not only thinking of his closest disciples. At this decisive and crucial moment, the horizon he has in view becomes universal: the new Covenant, the definitive reign of God will be for many, "for all".

During the past week Australia has celebrated National Reconciliation Week (27 May—3 June).

NRW is a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia.

The dates for NRW are the same each year; 27 May to 3 June. These dates commemorate two significant milestones in the reconciliation journey—the successful 1967 referendum, and the High Court Mabo decision respectively.

The devices are positioned at church doors at weekend Masses, to receive your electronic donations. It's great option for those wanting to give, but not carrying cash to put in the collection basket.

To use, it is as simple as:

1. Choose the amount you would like to give, by touching the device screen (on $5, $10, $20 or 'other amount'),
2. Then tap your credit card or smart phone over the device (as you would for any other electronic purchase).

As always, the Parish is forever grateful for any donation you are able to make and for your ongoing support of our parish. If you require any assistance with using the device, please speak to the Sacristan (at the Mass you are attending). Thank you.
