Servant Leadership

Jesus offers a different style of leadership than anyone expected. Jesus asks: "Can you, will you, stand by me, stand for me, stand for what I am all about?" His servant leadership is worlds apart from almost everyone's experience. We too often experience authority as rank without responsibility, comfort without conscience, crown without compassion, and greed without grace. (We can see much of this played out in current political elections in the USA and Queensland, in our own Church and society today.) Far too many of our leaders are far from Jesus' teaching, "Whoever wants to be great among you will be your servant, the slave of all."

Leadership of course is necessary. Power is important. Power moves and gets things done. (A Protestant once lamented to me that they could not get anything done because everything had to go through a synod – no-one had executive power to act, especially in an emergency or crisis!) As Lord Acton once famously said: all power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely!

Servant leadership – especially one grounded in Jesus Christ – is radically different, and I mean outrageously different. It means that the more power I have the more respect I must show, the more service I must render and the more aware of others I must be. It is ALL about the other and not about me. Think about that for a moment and realize how radical that is in leadership! How many leaders do we know like this?

Another key element of servant leadership is that it is not tied to 'positional leadership'. It is not tied to being a CEO or Manager or Parish Priest, it has nothing to do with job titles. We all have the capacity to lead, to influence others; whether that be as parents, principles, managers, pastors, doctors, student leaders, sports captains, coaches, or even just as friends – wherever we can influence or direct the lives of others is an opportunity for us to be a (servant) leader. Will we do this with respect, service and awareness of the other; or will we be self-serving and power hungry?

Catholic Mission Appeal will be held next Sunday 27 October at all Masses (both churches).

GO AND INVITE EVERYONE to the banquet

In Mongolia, Chuluunbaatar suffered a life-altering injury while trying to rescue a submerged vehicle, leaving him unable to work and reliant on scarce support services for basic needs. Without shelter and food, Chuluunbaatar faces the real risk of freezing to death.

Resources are limited, but the Church in Mongolia is working hard to provide essential services to people in need.

This World Mission Month, we invite you to extend your generosity to help enhance these vital services. Your support can make a significant difference to the lives of many, offering hope and tangible assistance to individuals like Chuluunbaatar.

~ Appeal envelopes will be available this weekend from rotary stands (and on pews on next Sunday 27 October.)
